ARMED WOMAN LIES IN WAIT TO ATTACK TAFT

SWEARS BY HER ENTIRE FAMILY MISSING MAN

Mrs. A. F. Lichtenstein Makes Dramatic Denial of Wrongdoing in Apartment

Testifies Against Men Accused of Conspiracy to Ruin Her Reputation

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Mrs. Anita Feder Lichtenstein, in dramatic fashion and at the conclusion of an hour's testimony on the witness stand in a hushed courtroom, took a solemn oath of her own composition attesting her innocence of the charge preferred against her by her husband, Nat Lichtenstein, his brother Samuel and Attorney Milton Nathan, who are jointly on trial with H. I. Joseph, charged with conspiracy.

"I swear by my mother's life, by my dead sister's grave, by my brother and my sisters. I take an oath before God that he may strike me dead as I sit in this chair if I committed this act of which I am accused."

This was the oath she swore. It was the woman's first sign of emotion, her voice faltered. Tears came to her eyes and she shook with excitement as she tremulously spoke. During her previous testimony she had never faltered. Facing the jury smilingly, telling a direct story with little prompting from Assistant District Attorney Brennan, she gave the impression of a beautiful woman very much in distress, but making the best of a disagreeable situation.

The Lichtensteins, wealthy realty men and capitalists of this city, together with Nathan, their attorney, and Joseph, a traveling salesman, are charged with misdemeanor conspiracy. It being alleged that Mrs. Lichtenstein had been told by Joseph that she was the wife of the President.

President's Plan Makes Artists Sulk

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—President Taft, it is developed today, has stirred up dissension in art circles by inviting competition for the honor of designing the medal authorized by Congress to be presented to Captain Arthur H. Rostron of the liner Carpathia, who rescued more than 700 survivors of the Titanic. No responses have been received and it is said artists resent the competition feature, on the ground that it tends to commercialize art. The commission is not considered highly alluring as the cost of the medal is not to exceed $1000.

Cooks Will Tell How To Banish Dyspepsia

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—To prove that cooking is an art and an art which can banish dyspepsia, the 350 members of the Southern California Cooks' Association will hold an exhibition in Fiesta Park here from November 7 to 30. They have announced their intention of showing how the poor dyspeptic who have been existing on milk toast, can digest hot mince pies, Welsh rarebits, T-bone steaks, bacon and eggs, and succulent beef and cabbage with impunity.

Graham-White and His Wife in Double Accident

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A double accident occurred to Claude Graham-White, the noted British aviator and his wife lying last night from South-End-on-Sea to Claxton on the East coast. A defect in the motor of their hydro-aeroplane compelled them to descend to the surface of the water at Burnham. The machine was sighted and taken in tow by a yacht and Mr. and Mrs. Graham-White were brought on board the vessel. Soon afterward the yacht went ashore on a shoal and could not be got off until today.

PREPARE FOR NEW NILES BRIDGE WORK GLADDENS SUPERVISORS

SUPERVISORS MURPHY AND BRIDGE AND DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY L. A. CLARK, INSPECTING WORK OF WRECKING OLD BRIDGE AT NILES.

TO FINISH JOB AHEAD OF RAINS

New Concrete Bridge on Wishbone Route to Help County

The work of wrecking the old county bridge at Niles to make room for the new concrete structure that has been ordered by the board of supervisors, is going rapidly forward and all the old bridge is now torn away except the central span. The Locke Construction Company is working with the greatest rapidity in order that the work may be well advanced before any danger from the rains of winter can delay the work. Supervisor Murphy and Bridge and Deputy District Attorney Leon A. Clark and County Surveyor P. A. Haviland and his chief deputy, O. W. Jasper, made an inspection of this work this week and find that everything is progressing satisfactorily.

All of the old structure has been removed except the central steel span and this is being rapidly unbolted so that this portion can be moved to its new location up the creek. It is proposed that this central span shall be utilized on the new Niles Canyon boulevard at the Clark place. This bridge went out entirely during the high water of two years ago and has never been replaced. If high water were to come this winter the Canyon road will be impassable at this point. So the old bridge span will be unbolted and moved up the creek and set up before the rains come so that the Canyon road may be kept open this winter.

The Locke Construction Company, which has the contract for the new bridge at Niles, already has a considerable portion of their concrete plant installed in the bed of the creek just east of the flume of the water company. They are at work preparing their molds and patterns and will begin casting their cement and concrete piles at once. The mixing machinery is already on the ground and a full electric light and power plant is being installed to facilitate the work.

AMERICANS IN GRAVE DANGER

Nicaraguan Situation Grows Alarming; Orders to Land Soldiers Revoked

Adverse Criticism Believed to Be Responsible for Action of President Taft

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Adverse criticism of the state department's Central American policy during the closing hours of the last session of the Senate, with intimations that an American army would be sent to Nicaragua soon after Congress adjourned, are believed by several officials here to be the reasons that actuated President Taft in revoking the order sending the Tenth Infantry from the canal zone to Nicaragua.

All authorities on international law in the state, war and navy departments are practically agreed that there is no technical difference between the khaki-clad soldiers and the marine or bluejacket when employed as a land force in a foreign country. But there is a public sentiment which invariably associates the landing of soldiers with actual warfare. On the other hand, marines and bluejackets are so frequently called upon for the Corncob Smoke Furnishes More Comfort and Is Greater Soother.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—Bernie Zahm, traveling representative of a tobacco company of New York City, made his first appearance today in the city and at once attracted a large following of women who were interested in his new product. Zahm declared that many women who had been smokers of cigarettes had found them in great discomfort and as a result were better off when they had discarded them for the pipe.

The new cigarette is made of a special blend of tobacco and is said to be a great comfort and a great soother. It is made in the shape of a pipe and is said to be a great comfort and a great soother. It is made in the shape of a pipe and is said to be a great comfort and a great soother.

Prisoner Says That She Is Mrs. Taft and That She Was on Lookout for Her Husband to Punish Him; Carries $200 in Paper Money

IS PROMPTLY ARRESTED BY DETECTIVES

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 29.—Caroline Beers, aged 40, who said she was from Greenville, Ohio, was arrested by Pittsburgh detectives at the Southern hotel while waiting for President Taft, with two long knives, found concealed in her clothing. The woman said she was the wife of the President.

Mrs. Beers said she was going to punish the President. She had been noticed yesterday afternoon waiting around the hotel and told employes that she was waiting for the President.

"I have the sacred knife for President Taft," she told a detective when arrested.

The woman did not get near the President, but was found and rushed out of the hotel just as the Presidential party arrived. She was found in one of the upper floors waiting near the elevator on which it was expected the President would go to his apartments.

One of the knives found in her clothing was a long keen-bladed affair, on the handle of which a picture of President Taft had been photographed. Mrs. Beers was well dressed. A roll of $200 was found in her clothing. She is supposed to be insane.

Taft was not told about the arrest of Mrs. Beers. After she had been taken prisoner the woman reiterated that she intended to punish the President.

RELATIVES SEND AID TO WOMAN.

GREENVILLE, Ohio, Aug. 29.—L. E. Chenoweth, an attorney of this city, went to Columbus today to look after the interests of Mrs. Caroline Beers. Chenoweth was sent by the woman's relatives when the news of her arrest was received.

John J. Jarvis, a son-in-law of Mrs. Beers, said Mrs. Beers had never shown any tendency to violence, although her actions had been somewhat peculiar at times. She did not follow politics, and he did not believe she was after the President because of his position or political connections. Jarvis said Mrs. Beers left here yesterday to attend the state fair at Columbus.

DRAMATIC SCENE IN COURTROOM

Conspiracy Trial Brings Forth the Strange Oath of Woman.

enstein, the wife of Nat Lichtenstein, was trapped by them in order that they might compromise her and her spouse might have grounds for divorce.

FACTIONS IN COURT.

The entire courtroom of Judge Cabanis was filled with members of Jewish societies on both sides of the bay, divided into two factions, the one supporting the wife and the other the accused quartet. Attorney George A. Knight, who represents the defendants, together with Attorney Harry Michaels, at the outset stated that the law prohibiting a wife from testifying against her husband would not be invoked, and that they would allow Mrs. Lichtenstein to tell her story in full.

The fair complainant is a brunette of attractive type with brown eyes and a countenance which is best described as beaming. She was dressed nattily and took the stand with alacrity. In the course of her story she practically made an additional charge against the defendants, at least one of the defendants, Attorney Nathan, whom she accused of tearing a $700 bracelet from her wrist.

TELLS OF LIFE.

The witness first gave the details of her marriage in 1905, her subsequent residence in Salt Lake city, her meeting with Joseph, who was a friend of her husband, and who is married and has a child, the latter being named Natalie after Lichtenstein. Coming down to the date of the alleged act on December 1, she told of the presence here of certain relatives who were stopping at the St. Francis and of her chance mentioning to Joseph that her husband was going to buy her a gold bag. December 28 she says Joseph, who was very friendly with the family, and who lives in Des Moines, said to her: "If ever you come to Des Moines, I will give you a grand time. I know he would," she continued, "because money was no object, because he was always one grand spender. On this day he rang me up and said he had bought that bag for me. I told him I didn't expect him to do anything like that and would talk it over with him as I was going to the St. Francis to take the girls to lunch. When I arrived there Joseph was outside and showed me a card where he had paid $100 on a $450 bag. I telephoned up to Mrs. Harry Lichtenstein and was surprised to learn that she said her sister had accepted another invitation. I was quite incensed, but Joseph said, 'That is all right, I'll take you to lunch.' He suggested the Bay State or the Poodle Dog but I wanted to go to the Golden Pheasant. Finally he compromised on the Bay State and he remarked that my joy was needed. He left me to telephoned up to me and said he would meet me at the Bay State."

DIDN'T BRING HUSBAND.

Continuing, Mrs. Lichtenstein detailed the leaving of her diamonds at Shreve's to be cleaned, her preference for a $475 bag instead of the $450, her going to the Bay State, being shown into a box by a waiter who said Joseph telephoned that he would be late, and of waiting for her friend. When Joseph appeared, she asserts he told her to get up and her husband and when she asked why he hadn't brought him along, the reply was that he wanted to surprise him about the bag. After she had taken something for a headache, a chicken sandwich and a cup of tea, she stated that Joseph again excused himself to telephone. Returning he proposed that they go to the parlor and send for the bag from Shreve's.

"We went upstairs in the elevator," she proceeded, "Joseph told me the parlor was moved, but we could use a suite and we went down a long hallway towards the back and entered a small parlor. He stated that the bag would be there in a minute, but the I heard my husband's voice at home and take off my coat. I did so. Then in a moment, he said, 'Take your hat off,' and drew out the pins, and laughingly removed my hat."

NOISE IN HALL.

"A waiter came in and asked Joseph if he had a coat, but he told me he had not. It was scarcely more than a moment afterwards when there was a scuffle in the hall and he said to me, 'You had better run into the next room or you may be shot.' At that he took off his coat and ran to the door."

"Was the door locked at any time when you were in the room?" inquired Attorney Brennan.

"It was not," was the reply. "I went into the room and sat on the bed. In a moment a man ran in and asked my bracelet, tearing it from my arm."

"Who was that man?"

"I didn't know him then, but I know now," she said. "He was Attorney Milton Nathan. The other man was my husband, Nat. He began to call Joseph had names and said: 'I know there was something going on and now I am sure of it.' Just here Mrs. Lichtenstein gave expression to the oath with which this portion of her story concluded."

NO KISSING TESTIMONY.

Attorney Brennan wanted to know whether Joseph had attempted any familiarity. "Did he kiss you?" he asked.

"No," was the reply.

"Did he behave in any manner unbecomingly?"

"Mr. Joseph always behaved towards me like a perfect gentleman," Mrs. Lichtenstein asserted that her bracelet, which was all produced by court, and which were given her by Joseph, were valued at $1500, including the bracelet. The theory of the prosecution, as announced in the opening statement of the district attorney, is that Nat Lichtenstein obtained possession of the diamonds and

BIG FIRST DISTRICT NEEDS 'LIVE WIRE' DAN MURPHY RIGHT MAN IN RIGHT PLACE

SUPERVISOR D. J. MURPHY, WHO IS MAKING A WINNING FIGHT FOR RETURN TO OFFICE HE NOW HOLDS.

Record Made as Horner's Substitute Deserves Full Term for Murphy

D. J. Murphy, who represents the First Supervisorial district, has proved himself distinctly a supervisor who does things. Mr. Murphy has served but little more than a year on the Board of Supervisors, having been appointed to fill the unexpired term of C. F. Horner, and yet, in that short time, he has accomplished for his district more than is ordinarily done in a full term in office. Mr. Murphy early showed a grasp upon the affairs of Alameda county that would be expected only in one of long service, and he has displayed an energy and determination that has resulted in great good to the section that he represents. It is because of the fact that he has shown his worth in office that he should be given a full, quiet term in which to complete the plans that he has so ably begun.

WORKS ON ROAD SYSTEM.

Mr. Murphy has had one grand idea toward which he has been working, and that is to give his district the most perfect communication with the markets of the world. The First Supervisorial district is the most productive section of Alameda county and it was to give the products of this section the best and cheapest access to the markets of the state that Supervisor Murphy has worked. The road through the Alameda Pass from the San Joaquin valley into the Sacramento and Fresno, was given his first attention. This was a much-needed improvement and a perfect roadway has been built from Alameda to the county line, affording perfect communication with the San Joaquin valley. This roadway cost nearly $40,000.

In the Livermore valley Mr. Murphy has installed several speaking plants where they were needed, has supplied bridges of the permanent concrete type to take the place of wooden structures, and has put what was already an excellent system of roads in perfect shape.

CO-OPERATES WITH BRIDGE.

Mr. Murphy has been most anxious to have the passes to the westward opened up with excellent roads that would give the Livermore valley easy communication with Washington township and the markets of the state. To that end he has worked in harmony with Supervisor Bridge, in whose district all of the work now in progress in the westward pass is being done. It is assured that this will be done.

Next to the Livermore Pass route, Supervisor Murphy considers the Niles Canyon boulevard as the most important roadway through the hills. This boulevard the supervisor considers would be of immense value, not only in a practical way, but as a scenic roadway that would be an attraction to automobile tourists. Mr. Murphy has prepared the way for the building of this boulevard and has made the actual beginning of work. By his firmness the Western Pacific railroad has been induced to make an settlement with Alameda county that gives the foundation for a fund that will mean the completion of work upon one section of this boulevard before the winter sets in.

NEW HIGH WATER ROAD.

Mr. Murphy has determined that no more money would be used in this roadway, but that a road which would be a high water road should be built. To this end he has secured from the Supervisors a complete survey for such a roadway, together with estimated cost of construction. Such a plan will enable the that Joseph's suggesting that they be cleaned was also the result of a conspiracy. The divorce complaint subsequently filed by Nat Lichtenstein accused Mrs. Lichtenstein of having an affinity in Joseph and of unbecomingly conduct with him in the Bay State hotel on the occasion described.

TO ATTACK MANAGUA.

Anxiety is expressed for Managua, in view of a dispatch dated Monday, which was received at the state department early today from American Minister Weltzel. The dispatch merely stated that the government had been informed that another attack on the capital would be made by the rebels. Nothing of later date had been received at noon today.

Upon his arrival at Corinto, Commander Washington, who is the senior naval officer in Nicaraguan waters, called into conference a committee representing the rebels. The revolutionaries forces advanced in the demand for the immediate repulse of the railroad between Corinto and Managua and the opening of telegraphic communication. A dispatch received here today said that wives between Managua and Corinto would be in operation within 48 hours, but that it would require 18 days for the repair of the railroad.

Much suffering by reason of the great scarcity of food is reported by Commander Washington. The United States consul at Corinto says that a commission of rebels appeared at Corinto, August 12, under a flag of truce. Francisco Baco, who headed the party, presented an ultimatum for the capitulation of the town within six hours. The consul assured them that the commander of the gunboat Annapolis was prepared to land an armed force for the protection of American life and property in Nicaragua. Everything is quiet here.

CRUISER ARRIVES.

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, Aug. 29.—The cruiser California arrived here today with a detachment of marines to be used for the protection of American life and property in Nicaragua. Everything is quiet here.

WEEPS 6 YEARS; THEN IS DIVORCED

Once Annually for Mrs. Carrie Clover Says She Moved Her Residence.

During the fourteen years of her married life, Carrie M. Clover had to pack up the family belongings and move fourteen times. Not only that, but she had to patch up the packing boxes. On one occasion she was forced to saw up a piano box to nail on the tops of the packing cases. After reciting a long string of alleged abuses, she was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce today.

For the last six years of her marital life, she said, she had spent most of the time in crying. Her husband, Edgar E. Clover, was accustomed to returning home late at night and slamming the doors so the plaster would be shaken off the walls. One day, when he was drunk, he threw a shaker at her, she said. He did not care for the children when they had the whooping cough, and refused to take her out to meals.

Plaintiff testified that for a birthday present her husband had allowed her to go to a show in San Luis Obispo, where she met a man named Charles W. Bauer, a baker, that she was forced to call the police into their home last May, in order to restrain her husband from beating her. She said that on numerous occasions he was in the habit of using his fists and for that reason she wants a separation.

BAD CHECK PASSER ADMITS HIS GUILT

C. H. Westcott Captured With Forger's Outfit, Enters a Plea of Guilty.

C. H. Westcott, whom the local police arrested in San Francisco with paraphernalia in his possession for the wholesale issuance of fictitious drafts and checks, pleaded guilty before Superior Judge Ellsworth yesterday. The particular charge against him was that he had passed a check for $200 on a local shoe company. There are also other charges pending against him in Oakland and he is wanted for similar offenses in San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Jose and other coast cities.

In company with Charles Schult, a confederate, the bad names were passed frequently by making small purchases and receiving change. In Westcott's room at the hotel was found a complete outfit, including a check perforator, rubber stamps and bundles of checks on banks in different parts of the state.

When Smith was in Justice Johnson's court making his affidavit he told the justice that he had investigated as far as possible and had learned that a man was noticed in the water beside a sail boat, apparently swimming for place. Whether he was swept away from the boat to his death by strong tidal currents, or had accidentally fallen out of the boat and was making an unsuccessful effort to save his life, is not known.

He failed to reach Alameda. The story of his disappearance was reported to the Oakland police by Wallace yesterday, almost simultaneously with the news by Smith. The boat is now at Alameda pier.

PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM PRESIDIO

Girl Gives Revolver to Guard-house inmate, Who Shoots Inmate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Officers are still combing San Francisco this morning for the prisoners who escaped in a sensational manner from the guardhouse at the presidio.

Gripping a heavy revolver given to him secretly by a young woman of mysterious identity, a prisoner in the guardhouse escaped yesterday afternoon, held up a sentry within fifty feet of the busiest spot at the post, forced him to give up his gun, and was shot down by the guard in attempting to escape.

The prisoner now lies in the General Hospital with a bullet wound in his head. Another prisoner has been captured in Tacoma after a four days' manhunt by the army authorities, and San Francisco is being combed for two others who today are still at large after the most sensational series of escapes from the presidio guard-house sentries that has occurred in years.

WOMAN AT BOTTOM

And the cause of it is—a woman. John Gross, a private of company B, Fifteenth Infantry, is the man shot down by a sentry yesterday while fully fifty people looked on. Albert McCandless of the Hospital Corps, serving six months in the guardhouse for a breach of regulation, was captured in Tacoma Tuesday for effecting a second escape from custody. The others, Privates Ford and Bolin, made their escape Saturday and have not yet been located. Bolin is a former member of the Marine Corps and was in custody for desertion and forgery.

Gross was doing road work under the eye of a sentry near the terminus of the Union-street car line. Stepping up to his guard, he whipped a bulldog revolver from his blouse and thrust it against the sentry's stomach.

SENTRY'S RIFLE TAKEN

"Give me that rifle!" he whispered. So quickly was the holdup accomplished that none of the soldiers and civilians standing within a few feet at the car station perceived it. The sentry passed over his gun, and Gross swiftly ejected the shells and threw them into the grass. Then he passed back the empty rifle and dashed for the reservation gates.

In an instant the sentry had snatched a handful of cartridges from his belt, thrown them into the magazine and aimed at the escaping prisoner, who had run about a hundred yards. A shot rang out. Gross threw up his arms and fell. The bullet had ripped through the side of his head within two inches of his right temple.

An ambulance from the Letterman General Hospital, which is within the sound of a gunshot from the scene, took the prisoner first to the guardhouse and then back to the hospital, where several stitches were taken in the wound. It was stated last night that the man will recover.

AWAITS SENTENCE

Gross is awaiting sentence by court-martial for a breach of regulations. Yesterday's sensational affair is but the culmination of a remarkable series of attempted jailbreaks at the presidio, which began on Saturday morning when a young woman had called at the guardhouse to see Private McCandless. It is believed that she is the one who later smuggled a revolver to Gross. Following the interview, at which it is supposed that he obtained money, McCandless, Ford and Bolin were sent out under three sentries to work about the grounds over the car terminus.

ONCE BEFORE ESCAPED

The sentries were recruits, the regular infantry, still absent from the post on account of the recent maneuvers. McCandless, who once before escaped from custody and is regarded as an incorrigible prisoner, edged his way to the little car shed. At an instant when the sentries were not looking and a car was just gaining headway out of the reservation, he made a dash for it and swung aboard.

The sentry shouted and ran down the tracks firing his gun. The others stood for a minute bewildered, and then one of them ran to the guardhouse to notify the sergeant of the escape.

FACES LONG TERM

McCandless faces a possible term of eighteen years, and will probably be sent to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. The other two men are first offenders, and will be treated less harshly if caught. Gross will probably be removed from the presidio post as soon as possible.

The successive attempts at escape from the guardhouse squad would indicate that a pact had been entered into by a number of the prisoners. Attempts at escape from sentries have been more frequent at the presidio than at other posts, owing to the danger to bystanders if a sentry shoots at an escaping prisoner. The field hospital corps and signal corps are quartered near the east entrance, where all of the breaches recently have occurred, and a bullet would be apt to tear through the wall of one of the frame barracks.

Sentries are supposed to aim at the legs of escaping prisoners. Owing to the circumstances the sentry who shot Gross in the head will probably be exonerated in the event of a court-martial. His name is withheld by the authorities.

CITY DAMAGED BY GREAT FLOOD

Part of Inundated Norwich, Engand, Will Have to Be Rebuilt.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—With the reports of communication comes reports of incalculable damage caused by floods in the eastern counties, though nowhere is the situation so serious as in Norwich, where a considerable portion of the city will have to be rebuilt.

Norwich, eighty bridges were washed down and scores of villages are cut off from the outside world. Peterborough became an island city. The Ipswich, Kingsliff, Nottingham, Spalding, Leicester and Stamford districts were seriously affected. There were few fatalities.

NORWICH, Eng., Aug. 28.—A considerable portion of the flooded district occurred today, but an enormous volume of water still threatens the eastern side of the town. SECOND ARRIVAL OF PATHFINDER

Speedy Transcontinental Trip Is Made by G. M. Pierce.

The second transcontinental Pathfinder to arrive in Oakland during the past ten days reached this city yesterday when Ed. M. Pierce of New York City checked in at the Manager J. A. Tebbetts of the local Pathfinder agency. Pierce left New York City on July 1. Considering the stopovers that he has made at various cities the trip has been a rapid one. A week was spent in Portland, Ore. Pierce is accompanied by his wife and another lady on the trip. The first time he had a passenger, Ben E. Jacobs, Western representative of the Motor Car Manufacturing Company of Indianapolis, making the trip.

Pierce met his course through the states until he reached the Middle West, when he struck up into Canada at Winnipeg. Thence he traveled to Portage, Brandon and Vancouver, and then down through Washington and Oregon. Speaking of the trip Pierce said: "The worst road that we struck in the entire trip were those of Wisconsin. I don't think that the latter have received any attention since they were first built. In Canada we followed the line of the Canadian Pacific railway very closely, picking out the best roads and trails that we could. In our trip I do not think that we struck any consistently better roads than those of the Pacific Coast."

"The most wonderful stretch that we encountered was the road through the Sierran mountains. It is a good road, but I regard it as extremely hazardous. It is so full of turns that it is said that one can almost see one's tailights as headlights at the same moment. On top of this, it is extremely narrow, so that in rounding the sharp turns one frequently finds one's wheels on the brink of a precipice that drops sheer for several hundred feet. A man who averages seven miles an hour through this mountain is doing well indeed. We will spend some time touring California and will then return East by the southern route."

FEAR VIOLENCE AS RESULT OF ORDER

VALLEJO, Aug. 28.—It is feared here that trouble will follow the order issued by Superior Judge Ellison finding the Solano Aquatic Club, which operates independent ferries, $500 and costs for violations of a recent injunction. Sheriff McDonald has been ordered to attach the launch Marguerite, one of the three boats operated by the club. An effort was made to attach money in the bank, but this failed. Conservative members of the club are urging their more radical friends to make the best of the situation, but actual violence is feared if the men as a body vote to defy on the ferry boats.

REBELS ARE SLAIN IN BATTLE

Mexican Government Volunteer Force Victors in Several Engagements

Americans Said to Have Killed Rebels Being Detained in Western Sonora

CANANEA, Sonora, Mexico, Aug. 28.—Bringing in fifty horses and mules, 25 mules loaded with provisions and munitions of war and $500, all captured from the rebels, a band of forty volunteers in the government service returned here today after beating the Orozco insurgents in a series of sharp engagements that began last Saturday.

The rebel losses in the engagements numbered more than two score, including four prisoners, one of whom was a woman camp follower who was captured with a rifle in her hands.

The fighting began at Bahiadora. The volunteers, numbering forty, surprised a band of sixty rebels and killed 17 of them. At Huapac next day the government force came upon more rebels, and the fighting lasted several hours before a supporting band came to the rescue of the volunteers and flanked the invaders, driving them to the hills.

Another battle occurred at Huapac Monday and the rebels were beaten and all their stores captured.

AMERICANS HELD.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 28.—Frank M. Curtis and Arthur Cunningham, Americans, said to have killed three rebels while resisting an attack at the mining town of San Rafael in western Sonora, are being detained there. The American vice-consul in Pozo has been instructed to notify the rebel leader he will be held responsible for the safety of the two Americans.

THREATEN KILLING.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Aug. 28.—Americans will be killed by rebels after September 15 is the declaration brought here by Colonel Emilio F. Campa, a leader of Orozco's rebel army, who with 800 men is operating along the southern Pacific of Mexico below Nogales, Arizona. The word was brought here by various Americans who declare they received it directly from Campa. An ultimatum alternative to the rebel leader is the resignation of President Madero.

Representatives of religious houses and of Presidents of Republics, including the United States, met at the grave with many thousands from the masses, whom the founder of the Salvation Army had tried to uplift.

The coffin was borne from the great doorway of Salvation Army headquarters to the house, which was decorated with dry palms placed over the "blood and fire" banner draping the casket. The celebrated battle flag, which the general had placed on Calvary, was placed at the head of the coffin, and as this was done the flags of the foreign deputations and of the English corps dipped in salute. FIGHTERS OF FIRE NEAR DEATH

Thirteen Mexicans Rescued in Sensational Manner From Flaming Canyon

Men Saved by Rope After Being Hammed in, Battling With Blaze

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—Thirteen Mexican fire fighters were rescued early today from Devil's Canyon, where they had been hemmed in since Monday morning, without food or water, by the flames that are sweeping through the brush on the San Gabriel range. All were taken to Azusa by the rangers, and it was said that with good care they had a fair chance for recovery.

SAVED BY ROPE.

The men were impressed into the fire-fighting line by Ranger Brownlow last Sunday, and sent into Devil's Canyon. Brownlow then turned his attention to the other end of the fire line and nothing more was heard from the Mexicans until today when two men reported that they were sure all of the men in the canyon were dead.

MEAN CRAZED.

The only way left to reach the men was by means of a rope hung over a precipice 300 feet high. Lowering a rope, one man volunteered to slide down and investigate. On the ground he found the men in a pitiful condition. All were famished and delirious from the heat and the lack of water. Their clothing had been singed and in most cases was nearly torn from the men's bodies by contact with scrub oak.

TAFT DEFENDS HIS USE OF THE VETO

'President a Coward if He Fails to Use Power When He Thinks He Should.'

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 28.—President Taft publicly explained today his exercise of the veto power. In his speech to a great crowd of farmers on the state fair grounds here, he declared that a president who did not use the veto power when he thought it should be used, proved himself a coward. "Some of my friends say," said the president, "that if a king had used the veto power as I have, his head would drop in the basket, but I am not a king and I am very different. The president has the power and it is his duty if he does not approve legislation to veto it. He must use the veto when his conscience tells him, whether his head drops in the basket or not. If presidents are men—and must of them are—they will exercise the veto when they think they ought."

"Look over the vetoes of other presidents and you will see that are good. Our forefathers thought it was well to have one man who would represent all the people and who would be able to tell the people when he saw legislation that he did not believe was good. The veto is an excellent thing. My friends who criticize me forget that I was elected just as they were and by a good many more people than they were."

The President spoke to the farmers of legislation which Congress had enacted for their benefit and promised that other legislation would follow.

RETURNS AFTER MOUNTAIN CLIMB

Prof. Herschel Parker, Who Scaled Mt. McKinley, Tells of Feat.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 29. — Professor Herschel Parker of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Belmore Browne of Tacoma, who came within 300 feet of reaching the summit of Mount McKinley last June, returned from Alaska last night.

Professor Parker was greeted at the pier by Mrs. Parker, a bride of a little more than a year, who had come all the way from Brooklyn to meet him and has been to Alaska on the first trip since they were married. The first time his only child, a baby of a few months, born during his absence in Alaska.

Professor Parker and Browne left Seattle February 2, reaching the foot of Mount McKinley April 25. On their previous expedition they attempted to ascend the mountain from the south side but this time crossed the Alaska range about twenty miles east of Mount McKinley. They went up the mountain side by the route selected by Tom Lloyd and his party of explorers when they ascended the mountain in 1910, to an altitude of 10,000 feet the Parker-Browne party relayed their supplies with dog teams from the camp below. After remaining at this altitude several days and unable to proceed higher on account of a severe storm they decided to await more favorable conditions and dropped back to an altitude of 8000 feet.

They set out again June 5, going up the northeast ridge and reaching the summit of the mountain at a height of 20,000 feet. The route selected was very narrow and hazardous and the ridge very steep, but the explorers were able to reach an altitude of 15,000 feet before being driven back by the severe cold and blinding snow which was blown by a high gale from peak to peak.

REACH HIGH ALTITUDE.
On the third attempt an altitude of 20,000 feet was reached where, with only three days' provisions left, they were unable to withstand the terrible cold and snow and gave up their hope of reaching the summit.

Professor Parker in explaining the severe cold on the mountain said that at a height of fifteen thousand feet on June 27 it was 19 degrees below zero. At a height of 20,000 feet the worst of the climbing was over but the severe cold and the blinding snow drove them back and made them decide to abandon their attempts to climb the remaining 300 feet.

"I found that the Fahrenheit, the special food used by Arctic explorers, and made of beef tallow and raisins, is of no value at the high altitudes," said Professor Parker. "We were soon afflicted with severe cases of indigestion, as the food was too heavy and we were unable to use a large part of it. I found that at an altitude of 15,000 feet I could not smoke without experiencing severe dizziness, while Mr. Browne seemed able to smoke at any height. The coldest weather we experienced was at an altitude of 15,000 feet, when the temperature fell to 25 degrees below zero."

Both Professor Parker and Mr. Browne said they had made their last attempt to reach the top of Mount McKinley.

APPROVES 1915 POSTAGE STAMPS

Postmaster - General Announces Design for Exposition Year.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A new two-cent stamp in commemoration of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1915 was approved yesterday by Postmaster-General Hitchcock.

It is about an inch wide and an inch and a quarter long. It bears an engraving representing the Panama canal, showing a steamship emerging from the northern lock and another vessel being raised in the southern lock. In the middle distance is a group of tall palm trees and in the background rise the hills of the Isthmus.

Across the top are the words: "U. S. Postage," and directly below these the line "San Francisco, 1915." In each lower corner is an olive branch, typifying peace; and balancing it on the right is a palm branch, indicative of victory and triumph. The design has been selected for the stamp. The first issue will be on sale in a few weeks.

The design of the stamp is simple and artistic, the lettering standing out with clearness and precision, while the denomination is indicated so plainly that it could not be mistaken. This two-cent denomination is the only one that will be issued in commemoration of the exposition.

Following the announcement of the Department that only a two-cent stamp would be issued, Mr. E. Bennett, representative of the exposition in Washington, conferred with Postmaster-General Hitchcock and Director Ralph of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and urged that a one-cent, five-cent and ten-cent stamp be issued.

The Department has decided to do so. The Bureau of Engraving and Printing has prepared designs for these denominations. The one-cent stamp bears a likeness of Balboa, the five-cent design a setting sun at the Golden Gate and the ten-cent design a picture of the Panama canal.

All three designs bear the words "San Francisco, 1915."

ROOSEVELT TO AID VERMONT CAMPAIGN

PENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 28.—The state campaign for the election next Tuesday received additional impetus today with the arrival here of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt for three days on the stump on both sides of the Green Mountains. Several progressive speakers, notably Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana and Gifford Pinchot of Washington, have been tilling the political soil of Vermont for weeks. If nothing interrupts his schedule, Roosevelt will follow his visit to this town with speeches later in the day at Rutland, Middlebury and Burlington.

CANINE ACTORS WITH BIG CIRCUS

Barnum and Bailey's Shows Aided Greatly by Talented Animals.

A German dog and monkey circus is a feature animal act with the Barnum and Bailey circus which shows here September 5. In this strange company of actors is found the laughing attraction of the age. They give a performance that lasts for half an hour and ends with a little melodrama in which dogs and monkeys play all the parts.

The play finishes with a fire scene. The villain, masquerading as a fireman, has set fire to the hero's house. An alarm is sent in. The fire company, composed of dogs, with a miniature but complete fire-fighting equipment, responds. The captain of the brigade sends a ladder and rescues a people from the second story of the cottage. The villain is thrust into jail by an ape policeman, and all ends happily.

There are many novel trained animal features with the Barnum and Bailey circus. There is a wondrous herd of elephants, a company of equestrian juggling seals, Horace's circus horse circus, a troupe of wonderful Hungarian horses and a band of full of educated roosters, geese and pigs. Comedy is added to the show by a company of fifty clowns, buffoons, jesters and fools engaged to make people laugh. It is said they are earning their salaries.

Howls of merriment are evoked by these artistic riddlers. They are the best of Europe's epitomes of the latest and highest class farcical hilarity. They chase the wrinkles of worry from the brow of care. They plunge the most sad state into fits of the giggles. Time worn slap-stick tactics and frame horse-play of the overworked clown of past years are repudiated by these artistic buffoons. They have had the best training in schools of legitimate comedy. They are pastmasters in the art of making people laugh. Not many years ago one of them was a jester in the court of the Shah of Persia. Several of them have played leading parts in the Drury Lane Christmas pantomimes at London. Others are from the comedy theaters of Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg. Many of our own stage burlesque stars are to be found among them.

At all times during the long program the pauses between thrilling and dangerous acts are filled with the brilliant and most clever of burlesque satires, travesties on political and public events, funny pantomimes, farces and skits.

The show opens with the great $500,000 spectacle of "Cleopatra," enacted on the biggest stage in the world with a cast of 1250 characters and a trailload of special scenery, costumes and stage effects.

A wonderful menagerie with the only baby giraffe and a new parade of lions in length, add to the attractiveness of the coming circus day in Oakland, September 5.

SIGNS ARE TO GIVE WARNING OF POISON IVY

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 29.—Signs are to be placed here to warn pedestrians away from spots where poison ivy is growing. In an attempt to lessen the number of persons affected by coming in contact with the vine. Scores of persons have become poisoned from the vine and by Victor S. Balderston, health commissioner, decided on the placards which are to be similar to those placed on the houses in case of contagious disease. This protection will be preliminary to the destruction of the plant by the city.

STATE HIGHWAY TO BE FREE OF BILLBOARDS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 29.—Mrs. George W. McCoy of Sacramento, president of the Northern district, and Mrs. Bradford Woodruff of Woodville, chairman of the civic committee of the California State Federation of Women's Clubs, have been assured by the State Highway Commission that every effort would be made to keep the new state of State highway built under the $18,000,000 bond issue free of billboards and other unsightly monuments to commerce. The women made a strong plea for the abolition of billboards along the new road.

FAMOUS PAINTING IS BOGUS, SAYS COLLECTOR

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The authenticity of the Correggio painting "The Education of Cupid," in the British National Gallery is disputed by Collector Landen, who claims he has the original. The painting is a long argument to prove contention, saying among other things that Charles I. who bought the picture from the Duke of Mantua in 1630, was bamboozled by his advisers, a music master named Landen and a French painter, Nye. The Government bought this painting and another Correggio in 1832 for $57,720.

FINAL PLANS FOR PICNIC ARE MADE

Hibernian Athletic Club Will Entertain Friends at Fernbrook Park.

The final meeting of the committee having in charge the annual outing and games of the Hibernian Athletic Club has been held. All arrangements are complete, and it is expected that this affair will outdo any previous outing given by this organization.

The committee has requested the members to take their children, as half-price has been secured for the little ones. In addition to the games and athletic events, there will be prizes awarded to the best singers in the old Gaelic tongue, for the best jig and reel, and for the ancient Irish high dance.

Trains will leave First and Broadway at 9:30 a. m. and stop at East Oakland, Fruitvale, Melrose and Hayward. The picnic will be held at Fernbrook Park, Niles Canyon, on Sunday, September 1.

BURGLAR GIVES BACK STOLEN COIN

Stung by Conscience Thief Restores Money Obtained by Robbery.

SPOKANE, Aug. 29.—Ringing the bell at the home of J. W. Hancock in Spokane yesterday a well dressed man, when admitted, asked Hancock if he knew him. When Mr. Hancock denied acquaintance, the stranger said that he had been in the house over two years ago, entering through a rear window and had robbed it of $20.81. The house owner remembered the burglar, and was surprised when the stranger presented an envelope and at the same time recounted how Mr. Hancock had talked with the masked burglar for half an hour upon Socialism, religion and the uselessness of thievery. He ended by saying that he had been encouraged by the talk and since that time had been working steadily.

After he left Mr. Hancock examined the envelope and found therein $20.81. The visitor did not leave his name or address.

HOMELESS DOG SAVES A WOMAN

Big Half-bred Newfoundland Rescues Maiden From Drowning.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Aug. 29.—A homeless, homely half-bred Newfoundland dog limped forlornly through South Boundbrook a few days ago, and too tired to go any farther, entered under the back door of John Wobus, on the Raritan river. Hector, as someone called it, was lying on the pier yesterday afternoon and, looking hopeless when Miss Bertha Thompson put out in her canoe.

When she was fifty feet from the pier, she dropped her paddle and in trying to recover it, upset the canoe. The next instant the dog had plunged off the pier and was swimming swiftly toward her. She caught him by the second time, Hector fastened his teeth in her waist and in a few minutes, had her safely on shore. Hector is no longer a homeless dog.

CUSTOMS WATCHMAN RECEIVES DISMISSAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—The Treasury Department notified Special Deputy Collector William B. Hamilton yesterday that John Killemeade, a customs watchman, had been dismissed from the service and that Watchman H. G. Craft and S. G. Miller were both to be suspended for sixty days. The three government watchmen were charged with having shown negligence of duty in not preventing the smuggling ashore of a large quantity of opium from the steamer Korea of July 20.

The Treasury Department sent instructions that in the future the rank of watchman should be given only to men who are of good character and are chanced to that of custom guard without any change of compensation. The Treasury Department has reduced the fine of Captain A. Zeeder of the Steamer Siberia from $250 to $25 for the finding of twenty-four tons of opium on his vessel in May last.

YOUNG EMPEROR NOW QUEUELESS

Imperial Clan Shears Topknot From the Head of Luckless Babe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Young China Association is overjoyed at the report just received from Peking that the Imperial clan has cut the queue from the head of Pu Yi, the deposed baby emperor of China. Members of the association here think that this is the most hopeful sign of the sublimation of the Manchus to popular rule.

The receipt of the news set the members of the Young China Association searching through Chinatown for those who might still be wearing the queue and chasing them into barber shops. In an appeal to the press, the association begged the cartoonists to heretofore emit the queue in caricatures of the Chinese.

GROOM AGED 34 YEARS, BRIDE 49

Runaway Wedding of S. F. Business Man and Widow Revealed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—A romantic runaway wedding that was intended to be kept secret a long time became known yesterday, only one day after its occurrence, because some of the hymeneal confidants decided it was too good to keep, and whispered it to a few other friends the story of the marriage of Mrs. Esther Greenberg, a wealthy widow, and Hugo R. Zonhoffer, a well-known business man. All of the customary safeguards of secrecy were thrown about the elopement because great objection to the match had been raised by the families of both, principally because of racial and religious differences.

There was objection on another ground, a marked difference in age. Zonhoffer is 34 years old and his bride 49 years. She is the mother of a son 29 years old. The age discrepancy did not appear in the marriage certificate, which gave the age of Mrs. Zonhoffer as 30 years and of her husband as 36 years.

The new Mrs. Zonhoffer is the widow of Samuel H. Greenberg, who was a prominent wholesale jeweler in San Francisco. When the couple decided to marry and breached the proposed wedding to the members of their families, a storm of opposition rose.

Arrangements were made for a swift flight to Santa Cruz county under cover of a supposed outing. A marriage license was obtained in San Jose, but through some device was suppressed from public knowledge. On Tuesday, Zonhoffer and his bride-to-be went to the home of a mutual friend, Mrs. A. Lechman of Palmdale, and the wedding ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace John L. Wallace.

She was a sister of Mrs. Louis Elkus and Mrs. John Williams of Washington as well as of the San Francisco publisher. She was born in the city of New York.

WOMAN ESCAPES DREADFUL OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have one fine healthy child and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEE MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

When beer in light bottles is exposed to light, the beer develops a disagreeable odor and "skunky" taste.

All brewers even cover the hand-holes of the case before shipping, to keep out the light.

Schlitz in Brown Bottles won't spoil after the case is open.

Pure beer, properly aged, will not cause biliousness.

Physicians and surgeons prescribe Schlitz, instead of malt tonics, as a builder of health.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—A new steamship line between the Pacific coast, the Panama canal, the Atlantic seaboard and way ports will be established within the next sixty days if the plans of the Panama Navigation and Commercial Company mature.

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 29.—Led by a dog, a searching party found the body of Dominick Gergave, a Coal City miner, under a culvert several miles from his home, last night. He had been missing five days. When he left home he told his wife he was going hunting. Daily searches were made of the surrounding country by friends but no trace of him could be found until his dog, which had accompanied his master, returned and guided the party to the bridge where the body was found. Gergave had been shot with his own gun but whether by accident or otherwise is not known.

HOW TO GET THIN IS NORDICA'S SECRET

Divas Has Lost Twenty Pounds by Treatment; Sails for United States.

ARIS, Aug. 29.—People looking at the Ritz yesterday were surprised when Nordica, the celebrated singer, appeared looking so much younger and thinner than at first sight scarcely anyone recognized her.

Mrs. Nordica, who sails on the Olympic today for America, admitted that she had succeeded in finding a restorative of youth, but she refused to divulge the treatment.

"I may not have found the fountain of eternal youth," she said, "but I have discovered something pretty close to it—how to get thin. Fatness is not only the enemy of youth, but of beauty as well."

"I have lost twenty pounds by a treatment I have devised and which is so easy and comfortable that it seems absurd. I don't diet nor do I exercise or deprive myself of anything. It is the easiest thing imaginable. Now, don't ask to explain what it is; I will tell that some time later."

"I feel most fit to begin my concert tour, which opens with the Maine festival in Portland the first week in October. I am anticipating with much pleasure singing with Schumann-Heink again as we did of old. We will appear together as Isolda and Brangene in Boston, with Weingartner conducting. I am also to sing Tosca for the first time in America. In this I am particularly anxious to make a success."

Woman Fights Vice

WEST HAMMOND, Ill., Aug. 29.—Virginia Brooks took another step in her fight against vice when she appeared before County Judge Owens and obtained an order citing two West Hammond police magistrates into court for alleged irregularities. The men are Frank Green and Charles Wittenburg.

A subpoena issued by Judge Owens and immediately served on Green and Wittenburg.

Charges of malfeasance in office, bribery, misappropriation of county funds collected as fines and other irregularities were made by Miss Brooks.

Reports reached Coroner Hoffman yesterday that women of West Hammond, followers of Miss Brooks, had threatened to arm themselves with spades and ex-hume the body of Esther Harrison, one of the women charged to have been murdered in Harry Foss' death chamber.

The coroner, however, says that such a move is unnecessary and that if sufficient evidence is presented to him he will order the body exhumed for examination.

YOUTH--WHEN THE HEART CALLS

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.)

HERE is no age except of your own making. The constant harping on age is all that makes people old. All decay and death is a condition of mind weakness. People who always are referring to dates are limiting their own lives. It is the jealousy of men and women which causes them to keep dates of birthday and events and bring them up at the slightest provocation, that provocation being caused by flattery or appreciation: "How splendid she looks!" "Yes, but let me see—she must be," etc. What has age to do with the real life of man or woman? Life is life—the divine part of us—unlimited. Death is the decay of spirit. Therefore, spirit really is all there is of us—our intellect. As long as the intellect remains, so long youth remains. I mean the intellect which does not confine itself to one line of thought or become prejudiced and narrow; the intellect which is broad, generous, receptive and unprejudiced; the spirit that loves life in all its phases, that sees God in the birth of a flower as in the birth of a soul, and believes in allowing every one the same privileges which it enjoys.

Such an intellect is superior to age or decay. Such an intellect knows that a sedentary life is conducive to stiff joints and a decayed body. It knows that kind and generous thoughts for others bring comfort and satisfaction to itself. It knows that a smile is more beautifying than a sneer. It knows that temperance of food or drink overtaxes the interior machinery and wears that machinery out prematurely. When you meet people who always are referring to "getting on in years" you should repudiate them as weak-minded, lazy people who allow their brains to be overruled by stale custom.

Most of the great men of the world were over 50 years of age before they accomplished their best work. Gladstone was at his best as premier of England at 75. Cornelius Vanderbilt was 70 when he opened the transit to California by way of Panama. Lord Beaconsfield (Disraeli) became premier of Great Britain at the age of 64. General Grant, General Lee and General Sherman were all over 50 when they became famous as great men. Victor Hugo was 60 when he wrote his best books, "Les Misérables" and "The Toilers of the Sea." It is only mindless people who make statements such as Dr. Osler made—that men should be chloroformed at the age of 60.

If men and women would reason with intellect there would be far less unreasonable stupidity with which to contend in this world. To be sure there are many illiterate people who live to an old age. That is because their minds are so extremely rapid that there is absolutely no wear of any sort upon them. They cannot put the age thought upon themselves. There is no reason why people should not be young at 80 or 90, full of energy and ambition. The knowledge of how to live and how to let live is rejuvenating. Slander and gossip, jealousy and fear are the causes for aging women. Excesses and overwork are the causes for aging men. The normal person will live longer and better than others. The principal rule for prolonging youth is energy of thought and action and the persistent denial of age. Remember, keep awake to the blessings of the world. Be part of its goodness always.

G. C. D.— An offensive breath is disagreeable and is usually caused from indigestion, constipation, or imperfect teeth. Are you sure your teeth are in good condition? Constipation is perhaps more often than any other cause of disagreeable breath. And constipation, in its turn, is a symptom of some underlying disturbance. In many instances a form of indigestion. The primary cause must, of course, be removed. Meanwhile, a mouth wash may help to sweeten the breath. Here is a formula: Bicarbonate of soda, one-half ounce; simple elixir, two ounces; distilled water, ten ounces.

DISTRESSED— If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be delighted to send you the dietary for reducing flesh and the rolling exercises for reducing the hips and formula for reducing the bust.

An overlarge waist by no means indicates strength in this part of the body, and in order to reduce girth safely one must begin by increasing strength naturally. A number of exercises are suited to this purpose and individuals can try them in turn and abandon those which do not seem comfortable and helpful to them. One of the best is also of a nature that requires care in the beginning not to strain muscles unused to the movement.

Fights Divorce Case

RENO, Nev., Aug. 29.—Rosa Marston, actress-wife of Leo J. Christal, who is heir to the vast fortune left by his father, Dr. Christal of Monterey, secured $225 to pay her railroad fare from New York to Reno to fight her husband's suit for divorce, $75 a month alimony, $250 attorneys' fees and $50 cost of a deposition.

Mrs. Christal upon learning her husband had instituted divorce proceedings resolved to contest so that any community interest she might have in Dr. Christal's estate left her husband, but not yet distributed, would not be lost to her. She came to Reno from New York where she was a member of one of the companies playing in that city, and, securing attorneys to represent her in Reno, started a fight for alimony.

Christal, who is better known under the stage name of Leo J. Bell, married his actress-wife in Los Angeles, where he played with her in stock. Later the couple played in San Francisco.

NEW MEMBERS IN
U. C. SORORITIESFreshman Girls Find Themselves at Home in Various Houses.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 29.—The arrival of new members in the different sororities has about ended for the beginning of the new semester and numerous first-year women are finding themselves safely stowed away in the respective sorority houses. Other sororities have not yet finally decided upon what houses they will accept but expect later in the month to be ready with their announcements.

The beginning of the college year is marked by the gradual adjustment of new students to university ways, and the chief factor of this adjustment is the opportunity to become members of the various sororities, fraternities and house clubs. The sororities are deceptively conducted, especially among the sororities where prevail the Pan-Hellenic rules which govern jointly sororities in all American colleges.

The ranks of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority have been swelled by the reception of seven new members as follows: Miss Edna Taylor, Berkeley; Miss Lois Forsyth, Santa Rosa; Miss Kathleen Maine, Turlock; Miss Katherine Hubbard, Berkeley; Miss Margaret H. Sells, Berkeley; Miss Marie Warren, Southern California; Miss Ruth Carson, San Francisco.

The neophytes of the in number including Miss Mary Bell, San Francisco; Miss Genevieve Townsend, Berkeley; Miss Louise H. Sells, Berkeley; Miss Helen Kelsky, Berkeley; Miss Gladys Eggers, Alameda; Miss Grace Parker, Oakland; Miss Agnes Wilson, Vallejo; Miss Zelma Potter, Los Angeles.

Six new members have been admitted to Kappa Alpha. They are: Miss Dorothy, Walnut Creek; Miss Katherine Saunders, Alameda; Miss Sarah Daniels, Minneapolis; and Miss Persia Buell, Minneapolis.

Alpha Xi Delta has admitted a coterie of six charming young women, among them being the following: Miss Alma Pennington, San Francisco; Miss Gertrude Sloan, New York City; Miss Ida and Ida Cherry, Berkeley; Miss Gail Parmenter and Miss Myrtle Williamson, Berkeley.

Lowther effected a sensational reversal months ago in Walnut Creek by executing a "quick-change" stunt in his pulpit from everyday dress to that of an obsequious Jewish priest, in which garb he preached a sermon.

He then gave a banquet to 200 just before Christmas at his church, doing all the cooking, waiting and decorating himself.

When the Methodist church over which he presides was built, Lowther did practically all the work with his own hands.

SUFFRAGE TALK
WINS HER HEART

Daughter of Professor Bradley
Will Wed Attorney of Boston.

BERKELEY, Aug. 29.—Many congratulatory messages are speeding across the continent to Miss Bertha Theresa Bradley, daughter of Professor Cornelius B. Bradley, professor emeritus of rhetoric of the University of California, since the arrival here of news of her approaching wedding to the assistant district attorney Herbert N. Warhosse of Boston. The definite date for the wedding has not yet been set but it will be an affair of this fall.

Back of the approaching wedding is a pretty little romance with a "Vox for women" as its motif. On July 4, just after Miss Bradley had arrived in the city, she heard Attorney Warhosse deliver a 4th of July oration. The address was filled to the brim with an earnest plea for woman's suffrage that struck a chord in the young woman's breast.

In California she was among the chief workers for the feminine franchise and had stumped a part of the state in the recent campaign. From this beginning and an introduction at the home of mutual friends soon followed the romance sprang. Announcement of the engagement of the young couple was recently made at a reception given by Miss Bradley at the home of her brother, Dr. Howard Bradley at Woodside, Massachusetts.

Miss Bradley was graduated from the University of California in the class of 1908. She has since been teaching thereafter. She went east on a visit early this summer. Professor and Mrs. Bradley, her parents, are expected to return to Berkeley until after the wedding of their daughter.

DINERS UPSTAIRS ENJOY MEALS

Cafeteria Invites Throngs to Splendid Luncheon and Dinner.

The Golden Gate Cafeteria located on Thirteenth at St. between Washington and Clay, upstairs, is conceded to be one of the city's cleanest most comfortable and appetizing dining rooms in the city. Every detail—food, service and appointments—is the very best that it is possible to procure.

Mr. J. Bertram manager, is a man well known in Oakland business circles, having been connected here in various capacities for many years. He is also at present interested in several cafeterias on the other side of the bay.

Many of the selected persons to have lunch here are the very best of the city. The cooking is all under the direct supervision of experienced chefs. Every detail in the service department has gained a place here by long cafeteria service.

Many are the words of praise from patrons as to neatness, efficiency and thorough satisfaction gained after a visit for lunch and dinner.

The fact that the cafeteria is upstairs, away from all the noise and bustle of the city streets is another great point in its favor, as it tends to bring about that feeling of restful enjoyment so essential to the busy workers' and shoppers' needs.

MORE PAY FOR JUDGES WANTED

Lawyers Suggest Higher Salaries and Removal of Temptations.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.—Judges were declared to be "scandalously underpaid" and the danger in settling lawsuits in this country were attributed to cumbersome methods of procedure, rather than to judges, by various speakers before the American Bar Association today.

"Most of the criticism that has started the movement for the recall of judges results from dissatisfaction in the slow way in which cases get through the courts," said Charles Blood Smith of Kansas. "This tardiness is due to modes of procedure, and not to the judges."

"We should keep our judges from temptation," asserted Henry D. Estabrook of New York. "An occasional judge is found wanting, because all judges are human. I am inclined to think that a judge should be permitted no patronage whatever, whereas we are forever thrusting upon them powers of appointment. There should be no perquisites, but in lieu thereof we should pay our judges salaries worthy their position."

Dr. C. H. Fitzworth, dentist, 18 Baldwin St., Rochester, N. Y., says Foley Kidney Pills gave him immediate relief and strengthened him wonderfully. "I have been bothered with weak kidneys and bladder trouble and suffered much pain. Foley Kidney Pills gave me immediate relief and strengthened me wonderfully. I am pleased to recommend their use." GOV. WILSON TALKS TO PENNSYLVANIA FARMERS Says Commercial Leaders Have Directed National Government

WILLIAMSVILLE, Penn., Aug. 29.—Gov. Wilson in a speech at a farmers' rally here yesterday talked of the farmers' share of prosperity with existing tariff laws. He said in part:

"It is strange that we should have put off so long looking into our government to see whether it is a fact or—according to the rules we originally laid down for it, it is certain we are now looking into it very sharply indeed, and without the least delay. It is a fact that we are again as to its character. Our idea of it has been from the first that it was a genuine partnership and that it was upon one footing and were to share alike. But a very interesting thing has come to light. The government has been in the hands of self-constituted trustees and the farmers have seldom been allowed a real governing voice in its administration."

RULE OF CAPITAL.
"We had supposed that we were conducting the national business along the lines laid down by Jefferson, but we find that as a matter of fact we have been conducting it along the lines laid down by Hamilton. Hamilton believed that a common run of men had little qualification for such business, that it could be really comprehended and wisely directed only by the educated and the rich."

"The trustees represent also the big bankers in whose hands our banking system lies, and no Republican administration, no Republican Congress has attempted to serve the farmer as he ought to be served in the matter of credits. It is practically impossible for the farmer to borrow money on the kind of securities ordinarily demanded at the banks. It does not serve his purpose to borrow it for the short periods insisted upon by most bankers. He needs rather long credits and he needs the money on his own kind of security. He can't be mortgaging his farm every time he needs a little money. Other countries have discovered how to assist him. An admirable system of agricultural societies has been developed in Ireland and in Germany."

"The present Democratic Congress has done nothing better than to provide for a careful investigation of this subject, with a view to early action so that the law may be fitted to the creation of these new instruments of business which the farmer so much needs and ought to have."

IN SPECIAL CARS.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—As Governor Woodrow Wilson left here today for Williams Grove, to deliver his first campaign speech outside of New Jersey he was joined by a delegation of about 100 prominent Democrats from all parts of the state led by George W. Guthrie of Pittsburg, Democratic state chairman and Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer.

The party traveled in two special cars to Williams Grove, where it is planned to make the 13-mile trip to Williams Grove by automobile.

English Newspapers Satisfied With Presentation of Note Concerning Tolls.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The newspapers print editorials this morning expressing satisfaction with the action of the British charge d'affaires at Washington, Mitchell Innes, in presenting the British note protesting against the Panama Canal act and threatening to appeal to the Hague tribunal for arbitration in the matter.

The Daily Mail says it is one of the tragic-comedies of public life that a president, who a year ago seemed destined to become a universal peace-maker, should be known even in his own country as a treaty-breaker.

The Times says: "The president really does not seem to feel much confidence in his own cause."

EXPECT ADJUSTMENT.
BOSTON, Aug. 29.—While European countries are unanimous in expressing the belief that the Hay-Pauncefote treaty has been discarded and they will not relax in their efforts to make use of the Panama canal, John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, said concerning the passage of the Panama Canal bill on its arrival here from Europe, "The European countries will go ahead, even under unfavorable conditions, and trust to a new adjustment either through the Hague court or new legislation at the next session of Congress."

"A foreign influence against the bill has been a lack of popular knowledge and appreciation of the fact that coastwise shipping of the United States is limited to vessels flying the American flag and that foreign vessels, no matter what the tolls may be, could not engage in coast to coast business."
